GUJARAT CONFIDENTIAL

ONLY FOR VIPs

SAFETY RESTRICTIONS imposed on the Aji-I dam were suspended when VIPs such as Rajkot mayor Bina Acharya and wife of Chief Minister Vijay Rupani, Anjali Rupani, among others went on to a bridge over the spillway of Aji-I dam and posed for photographs as the dam started overflowing on Monday. But the public, for whom it is an occasion for celebration when the dam which provides them drinking water overflows, are not allowed to go past a safety grill that was installed on the main structure of the dam when Prime Minister Narendra Modi visited in 2017. The restrictions have upset residents.

CHIEF CONSTRAINT

THE DIAMOND and textile hub and city of migrants, Surat, is without a police chief. Satish Sharma who retired on August 31 and was hoping to get an extension has not been replaced yet, although the names of Manoj Shashidhar, RB Brahmabhatt and Manoj Agrawal have been doing the rounds. The charge has been given to Joint Commissioner Hare Krishna Patel. With a population of 60 lakh, and Surat having the highest number of Ganesh pandals this year - 70,000 - as well as Muharram likely to coincide with the Ganesh visarjan dates, the coming days will be a test for the police.

SECOND TIME UNLUCKY

UNION HOME Minister Amit Shah's scheduled to visit Hirpura village of Vijapur assembly constituency of Mehsana district in North Gujarat on September 6 was suddenly cancelled. Sources in Mehsana BJP said this was the second time Shah's proposed visit to Hirpura village was cancelled due to time constraints. The Mehsana unit, which had begun preparations for Shah's visit during which he was to address a public rally in Vijapur, is now awaiting a fresh date from Shah's office, a party source said. Shah was in Ahmedabad on Wednesday for a surgery and it could be the reason for the cancellation of his visit.

PROJECTING SARDAR

TWICE IN the past week, Union Home Minister Amit Shah has been compared with independent India's first home minister Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. During the seventh convocation of Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University in Gandhinagar, varsity president and business tycoon Mukesh Ambani referred to chief guest Shah as the 'Iron Man', a moniker used for Sardar Patel. At Gujarat University Start-up and Entrepreneurship Council (GUSEC) annual awards on Wednesday in Ahmedabad, chief guest Union Minister Anurag Thakur, referring to GU alumni such as Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Amit Shah said, "You (GU) have given us Amithbai...Sardar's (Patel's) image is reflected in him."

Eviction of vendors at Statue of Unity violates law, HC told

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
AHMEDABAD, SEPTEMBER 4

THE EVICTION of street vendors from around the Statue of Unity in Narmada district a few days ago has been challenged in the Gujarat High Court, with the petitioners claiming it was carried out in violation of the Street Vendors Act.

The petition was taken up for urgent hearing on Monday when the vendors sought a stay on the anti-encroachment drive around the towering statue of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, a major tourist attraction inaugurated last year. However, the handcarts and stalls of most of the vendors were removed the same day, after which the petitioners on Wednesday sought the court's direction to the government to relocate the affected vendors as per the Act.

Justice A Y Kogje issued notices to the state government, the chairman and managing director of Sardar Sarovar Narmada Nigam Ltd (SSNNL) and Narmada district collector over the petition and kept the matter for further hearing on September 10.

Through their lawyer Nimish Kapadia, 58 street vendors who were evicted, on Wednesday sought the high court's direction to the authorities concerned to carry out a survey of affected vendors and issue them certificates. They also sought the court's direction to ensure that they are designated an alternative place to carry out their business as per the provisions of the Street Vendors (Protection of Livelihood and Regulation of Street Vending) Act, 2014.

Around 100 vendors doing business in the areas around the Statue of Unity were evicted by the authorities and their handcarts and stalls seized in a drive carried out by SSNNL together with the district administration and the police.

SSNNL Managing Director Rajiv Gupta has justified the anti-encroachment drive. On Tuesday, Gupta told reporters the drive was necessary to end traffic congestion and ensure proper movement of vehicles up to the Statue of Unity. He said over 30,000 tourists and nearly 4,000 vehicles come to the Statue of Unity every day.

MP Vasava writes to CM against 'angrez' IAS officer's move

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
VADODARA, SEPTEMBER 4

A DAY after he referred to the managing director of Sardar Sarovar Narmada Nigam Ltd (SSNNL), Rajiv Kumar Gupta, as an 'angrez' officer for evicting tribal vendors from around the Statue of Unity, BJP MP from Bharuch and tribal leader Mansukh Vasava said he stands by his remark. He said he has written to Chief Minister Vijay Rupani to take action in the matter and provide livelihood to the tribals whose shops were demolished on Tuesday.

The SSNNL had on Tuesday removed "encroachments" from villages in Kevadia colony such as Limdi and Navagam, around the Statue of Unity.

"I received a frantic call from a tribal family from Kevadia in the morning of Tuesday stating that the SSNNL had sent bull dozers without even serving any warning to evict shop owners on the road to Statue of Unity," Vasava said, speaking to The Indian Express. "Although it is not my constituency (Kevadia colony falls under Chhota Udepur whose MP is BJP's Geeta Rathwa), I rushed from my residence in Rajpipla. By the time I reached, they had already razed the shops. It was an insensitive act." The Bharuch MP said, "I know that Modiji himself wouldn't approve of this autocratic behaviour. Rupani and Modiji have already said that tribals have to be given employment and treated with utmost sensitivity in such matters. I have written to the chief minister to take action and ensure that these tribals are not left without an income."

Vasava said he dashed the letter to Rupani from Kevadia itself. I have told them that these are not encroachers who have just turned up overnight to be thrown out," he said. "These are families that have been selling food and cold drinks to tourists for over five years. Some of them have been there since the time of the construction of the Narmada dam and when Jaypee group was working here," he explained.

"To send bulldozers and just crush their shops is not the way," Vasava said. "Unfortunately, some officials are so blinded by power, sitting in AC offices, that they don't understand the plight of tribals. If there is a need to shift them it should be done in a decent way by giving them an alternate source of livelihood."

Amit Shah undergoes procedure for removal of benign growth

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, SEPTEMBER 4

UNION HOME Minister Amit Shah underwent a surgical procedure for the removal of a non-cancerous fat-tissue tumour known as lipoma, at KD hospital located on SG Road here on Wednesday.

The hospital administration said the lump was removed from the back of the minister's neck in a procedure done under local anaesthesia. Citing hospital protocol, they refused to divulge details of the procedure or the doctors involved. A statement issued by Managing Director Dr Adit Desai said Shah was admitted at 9 am and was "successfully operated for lipoma on the back of his neck under local anaesthesia". He was immediately discharged.

A lipoma, which appears as a bulge, is a form of benign fat tissue tumour that, in some cases — depending on where the growth is located — may cause breathing trouble and therefore interruption of sleep. Obesity and a history of occurrence in the family could cause lipomas.

A physical examination, biopsy and imaging tests such as ultrasound, MRI or CT scan are conducted to determine whether a bulge or lump in the body is benign, such as a lipoma, or malignant.

8 arrested after video of them 'drinking' at Ganesh pandal goes viral Vadodara: Surat police on Tuesday arrested eight people, after a video showing them drinking liquor at a Ganesh pandal went viral. They were detained on Monday.

Those arrested have been identified as Kamlesh Rana, Tejas Rana, Roshan Rana, Ganesh Rana, Rajnikant Rana, Amit Rana, Anil Rana and Ashraf Pathan, all residents of Golwad area, where the video was purportedly shot. Earlier, the area was infamous for bootlegging, police said.

They have been booked under IPC sections 153 (giving provocation with intent to cause riot), 295(a) (deliberate and malicious acts, intended to outrage religious feelings of any class by insulting its religion or religious beliefs), 143 (unlawful assembly), 188 (disobedience to order duly promulgated by public servant) and 120 (B) (criminal conspiracy) and sections of Gujarat Prohibition Act.

"From the Ganesh idol we identified the pandal and the eight accused," in-charge Commissioner Harikrishna Patel said. The liquor was bought on the permit of one of the accused's mother, he added.

"Around 10-20 years ago, this area was a notorious bootlegging pocket. The situation has improved now. We carried out raids in 12 different locations in the area but did not find anything. An ACP-rank police officer has been asked to investigate whether there was any lapse on the part of the police vigil. This being a midnight shot, less than 30% of the police strength was patrolling the areas," Patel added.
